

A New Thing – Vision Sunday

Isaiah 43:18-21

This is what the LORD says - your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel:
“For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives all the Babylonians, in the ships in which they took pride. I am the LORD, your Holy One, Israel’s Creator, your King.”

– Isaiah 43:14-15

This is what the LORD says - he who made a way through the sea, a path through the mighty waters, who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

- Isa 43:16-17

Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.
– Isaiah 43:18

Remember the lessons, but forget the methods of the past.

See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.

- Isaiah 43:19

The great danger of maturation is calcification.

Seeking

We see a church hungry for God.

We see strong preaching and vibrant Spirit-filled services. We see people who base their lives on Scripture and prayer, yielded to the Holy Spirit and living a life of fruitfulness.

Caring

We see church as a family that cares. A community that is authentic. We see every generation having a place. We see people growing people into spiritual maturity. We see healthy cell groups that are multiplying.

Serving

We see everyone involved.

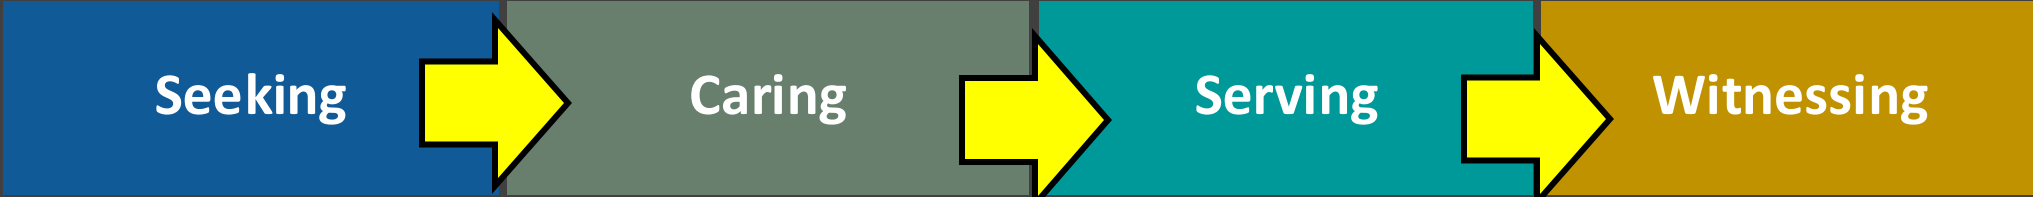

We see people stepping forward, serving joyfully and generously, with their time, talent and treasure. We see people operating in the power and gifts of the Holy Spirit. We see people serving with excellence to the glory of God.

Witnessing

We see a witnessing community.

We see a church without walls offering radical hospitality. We see a church embracing people from all walks of life. We see a church equipped and ready to share the gospel to a world in need of Christ.

The church we see is SJSM.

The wild animals honor me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen, the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.
